Triple victory ruled on October 22, 1971, Homecoming night. It began with the traditional parade, in which the decision on the winner of the floats was announced. The Class of '72 and '73 were tied for first. Not to be forgotten, the sophomore class made a 3rd place standing.

Following the Homecoming Parade, the crowds swarmed to the Largo field to await the announcement of queen. As each princess was introduced, she crossed the field gracefully with her escort. When all had been presented, Mike Shannon announced the 1971-1972 Homecoming Queen, Miss Michelle Poyet.

To complete the victories of the evening, the Packers valiantly strove on for a victory over Cypress Lake. With a score of 21-6, the team drove the Packer fans to their feet in roaring excitement. The night ended with a dance in the Pod. Morning Magic was the performing band. The queen took her place on the throne to be admired by all.

"Madwoman of Chaillot" Possesses Minds of Largo

Jr. Play Runs 'Barefoot' Through Largo

A welcome to spring . . .
The Jr. Class presented the play "Barefoot in the Park" as their special greeting. The wintry setting did not prevent them from warming the audience with laughter. The audience in turn rewarded the cast for their long hours and hard work of preparing the play with their enthusiastic applause.
Spring was then warm enough to run
"Barefoot through the Park."

Exceptional Students Present Us With Honors

Honor, recognition is what these students have achieved for Largo. Those who participated on the High-Q and Categorically Speaking teams were chosen not only for their intelligence but also their fast recall, which is the basis for quiz teams. They competed against other schools and both were victorious. B. Woltil and E. Huddleston were chosen for the "Milk Thing" by the Administration Council and Hood's Dairy Milk for their outstanding contributions to the school and community.

Sports

A better passing attack, more size, and many outstanding underclassmen marked this year's varsity as different from past teams. Three close games meant the difference between a winning and a losing season for the charges of Coach Don Stowers. A lack of experience in some key positions prevented Largo from being a conference powerhouse. The offensive and defensive backfields were outstanding, led by seniors Glenn Campbell, Scott McCune, Carl McMullen, and J. J. Roberts. George Keriazes and Ron Johnson were key men in the rugged line. Effort and determination again reigned supreme over size and ability . . . Football '71.

Packers Shocked by Vikings in Last Second

BOCA CIEGA

Despite a strong second half rally, the Packers fell short of upsetting a tough Bogie team in the season opener. Largo fought back from a 14-0 deficit and tied the game on touchdown runs by Steve Webb and Glenn Campbell and Campbell's extra point run. Bogie, however, was too strong and added two late touchdowns to wrap it up. Terry Wheaton quarterbacked the Packer offense which showed a strong running game and Paul Paonessa spearheaded the defense. Next week, the Northeast Vikings.

PACKERS-14 BOGIE-27

NORTHEAST

The Packers seemed headed for a victory, until the last second. With Largo leading 12-7, the Vikings moved 86 yards in 1 minute and 25 seconds to a touchdown and a win. Steve Webb and Glenn Campbell scored touchdowns and, along with Scott McCune, powered the Packer running game. J. J. Roberts and Richard Appling, who recovered a fumble, formed the backbone of a gutty defense that was robbed of a victory.

DIXIE HOLLINS

Handicapped by a slippery field and a torrential rainstorm, the Packers and the Rebels engaged in a rugged defensive match. Trailing 6-0 in the third quarter, Steve Webb broke loose for a 58 yard jaunt, and shortly after plunged in from the one for Largo's only score of the night. Sparkling defensive play by J. J. Roberts, Dale Dew, and Scott McCune saved the Packers by holding Dixie to 6 points and a tie.

LAKEWOOD

The first victory of the season was registered as Largo slipped by the Spartans 20-16. Steve Webb scored twice and Glenn Campbell once as George Keriazes and Roy Terepka blocked magnificently. Cris Bennett and John Campbell were key men in the defensive line and Carl McMullen helped in stopping the Lakewood passing attack.

PACKERS-20 LAKEWOOD-16

CYPRESS LAKE

Largo scored a big homecoming victory by smashing Cypress Lake 35-12. Glenn Campbell led the onslaught, running for 165 yards and two touchdowns, behind the blocking of George Keriazes, Ron Johnson, and Roy Terepka. Steve Webb plunged for two touchdowns, Scott McCune scored on a 12 yard run, and J. J. Roberts kicked 5 extra points to round out the scoring. On defense, Jim Marx and Ron Roberts picked off passes and Richard Appling was outstanding in stopping the Panther attack.

PACKERS-35 CYPRESS-12

ST. PETE

The Packers and the Green Devils engaged in a wild, high scoring game, but the Packers came out on the short end, 36-20. Scott McCune and Steve Webb each scored a TD and Glenn Campbell crossed the line once as Largo was behind only 28-20. The second half was a rugged defensive battle, with St. Pete scoring late to wrap it up. Don Henke paced the defense with 8 tackles and J. J. Roberts was outstanding on pass defense.

PACKERS-20 ST. PETE-36

GIBBS

The Packers used a powerful rushing controlled game as they slipped by a tough Gibbs team 21-12. The defensive secondary, led by Scott McCune and Carl McMullen, shut down the feared Gladiators passing attack. Steve Webb and Glen Campbell churned for yardage, with Webb scoring twice. J. J. Roberts added 2 extra points and Largo led 14-12. Late in the game, Jim Marx grabbed Gibbs' pass and ran it in for the final touchdown. Marx also had 12 tackles for the game and won the "Unheralded Hero" award.

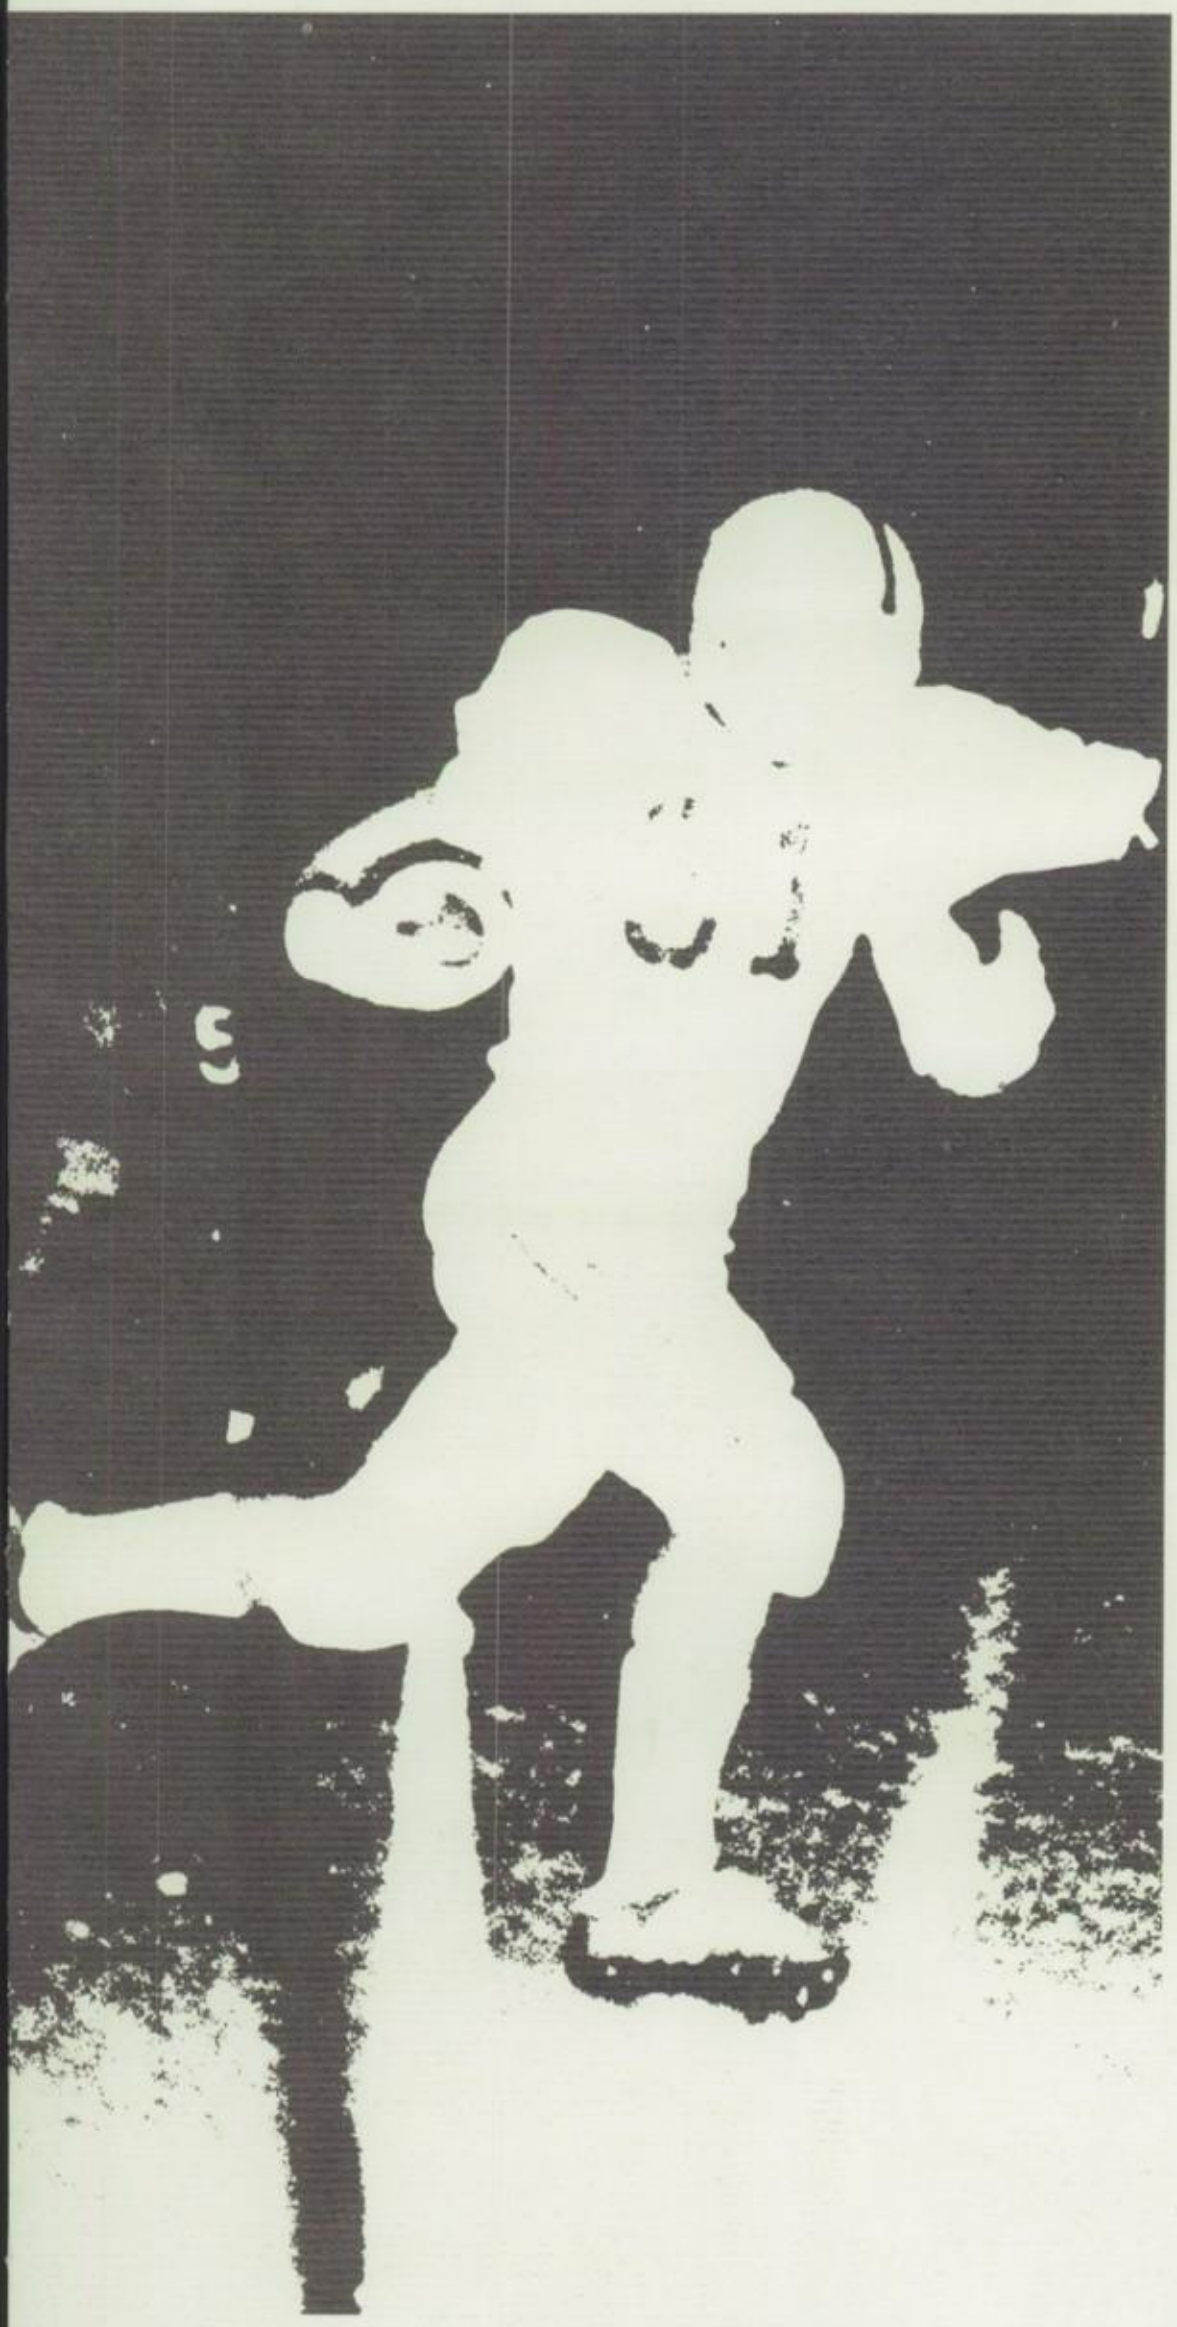
owerful Packers Tripped Up by Falcons



SEMINOLE

Largo came face to face with a rugged Warhawk team and was outplayed on Parents' night. A strong defense stalled the Packers powerful running game, so Terry Wheaton and Dan Murray took to the air. Rick Buis and Jim Marx hauled down long TD passes from Murray to account for the scoring. The defense was tested again and again, with great efforts from Dale Dew, with 14 tackles, Jim Marx, and Scott McCune.

PACKERS-14 SEMINOLE-49

DUNEDIN

Largo was the victim of a record setting performance by Dunedin's Glenn Hodges as the Packers were edged 24-18. Steve Webb scored on a 6 yard run and J. J. Roberts kicked the extra point for an early lead. The Pack added a 20 yard field goal by Roberts and a TD pass from Terry Wheaton to Scott McCune in the last quarter, but the rally fell short. Wheaton headed a balanced offense with a potent passing attack and a strong ground game led by Glenn Campbell. Offensive linemen Alan Sine and Ron Johnson blocked ferociously and gave Wheaton ample time to pass.

CLEARWATER

A fantastic team effort gave the Packers a near upset against a bigger and more powerful Clearwater team. Largo controlled the ball almost the entire first half with a last second touchdown in the first half and a disputed play in the second half being the Tornadoes' only margin of victory. Largo moved the ball with a passing offense and Steve Webb scored the lone touchdown. J. J. Roberts played a great game both on offense and defense, as did Carl McMullen and Jim Marx. The season had ended.

JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL
The junior varsity kept the word "winning" at Largo, rolling to a 6-1-1 season. It was Clearwater that finally snapped the J.V.'s 20 game victory streak in a hard fought game. Outside of a tie with Dixie Hollins, Largo dominated other conference competition. Examples include thrashings of Lakewood (26-0), Northeast (34-0), and Gibbs (40-0). The Packer backfield proved unstoppable due to the presence of Tom Parker, Largo's top groundgainer, and Ralph Thomas. Steve Hall quarterbacked the Sophs to victory, constantly finding receivers Ollie Troupe and Terry Taylor wide open downfield. Parker and Thomas again proved to be the keys in Largo's invincible defense, which held three teams scoreless and two others under seven points.

Haley's Harriers Capture 2nd Place in State

CROSS-COUNTRY
For the third consecutive year, Largo's cross country team was one of the top two teams in the state. Only injuries and illness kept them from winning their second championship as they were edged out by Titusville, a team they had defeated during the season. Mike Benedict was kept below par by an injury and Gary Funkhouser, Florida's top distance runner, was ill much of the year and still finished 9th in the state meet. Juniors Don Waters and Jeff Howdeshell also finished among the top ten state wide, running 4th and 6th respectively. Seniors Harvey Gay and Paul Gerard ran tremendously throughout the year and were key figures as Haley's Harriers thrashed all competition in the area. Sophomore sensation Ed Palmer rounded out the top seven with Johnny Poinsette and Melvin Jones close behind. Largo outran everyone because they outworked everyone, with each runner running at least 100 miles a week. With many runners returning and Coach Haley assigning tough workouts, Largo should be on top for years to come.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

A ball control type offense and a tenacious defense (which was the best in the conference) enabled the Packers to give the bigger and stronger teams in the county a run for their money. Largo had to replace a lack of size with hustle and teamwork to produce early season wins over Tarpon Springs, Gulf, and Boca Ceiga.

At 6'8", Fred Ramsey controlled the offensive and defensive boards as did forwards Steve Seibert, John Campbell, and Bob Lazarchik John Miksa anchored the defense and led the scoring with juniors Paul Campbell and Terry Wheaton close behind.

The Packers led at halftime against previously ranked No. 1 Clearwater before bowing in the late stages of the game. Fred Ramsey fouled out in the fourth quarter, leaving little height in the Largo lineup against the tall Toranadoes.

Largo captured third place in the Gulf Christmas Tournament by defeating Gulf 67-39. Bob Lazarchik, Fred Ramsey, and Gregg Anderson each scored 13 points as Coach Bill Schroeder substituted freely the entire second half.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

With an all sophomore team, the first J.V. season for Coach Richard Allen proved rewarding. This was not all credited to a winning season, but also to the hustle and desire of boys who were handicapped by a lack of size and experience. Offensive stars of the Baby Packers were Marc Chatigny, who had several 20 point performances, and Jim Marx, big man for the sophomores. Ollie Troupe spearheaded the defense. Greg Cremeans, Rick Richey, and Charlie Rabe also gained valuable experience for next year's varsity season.

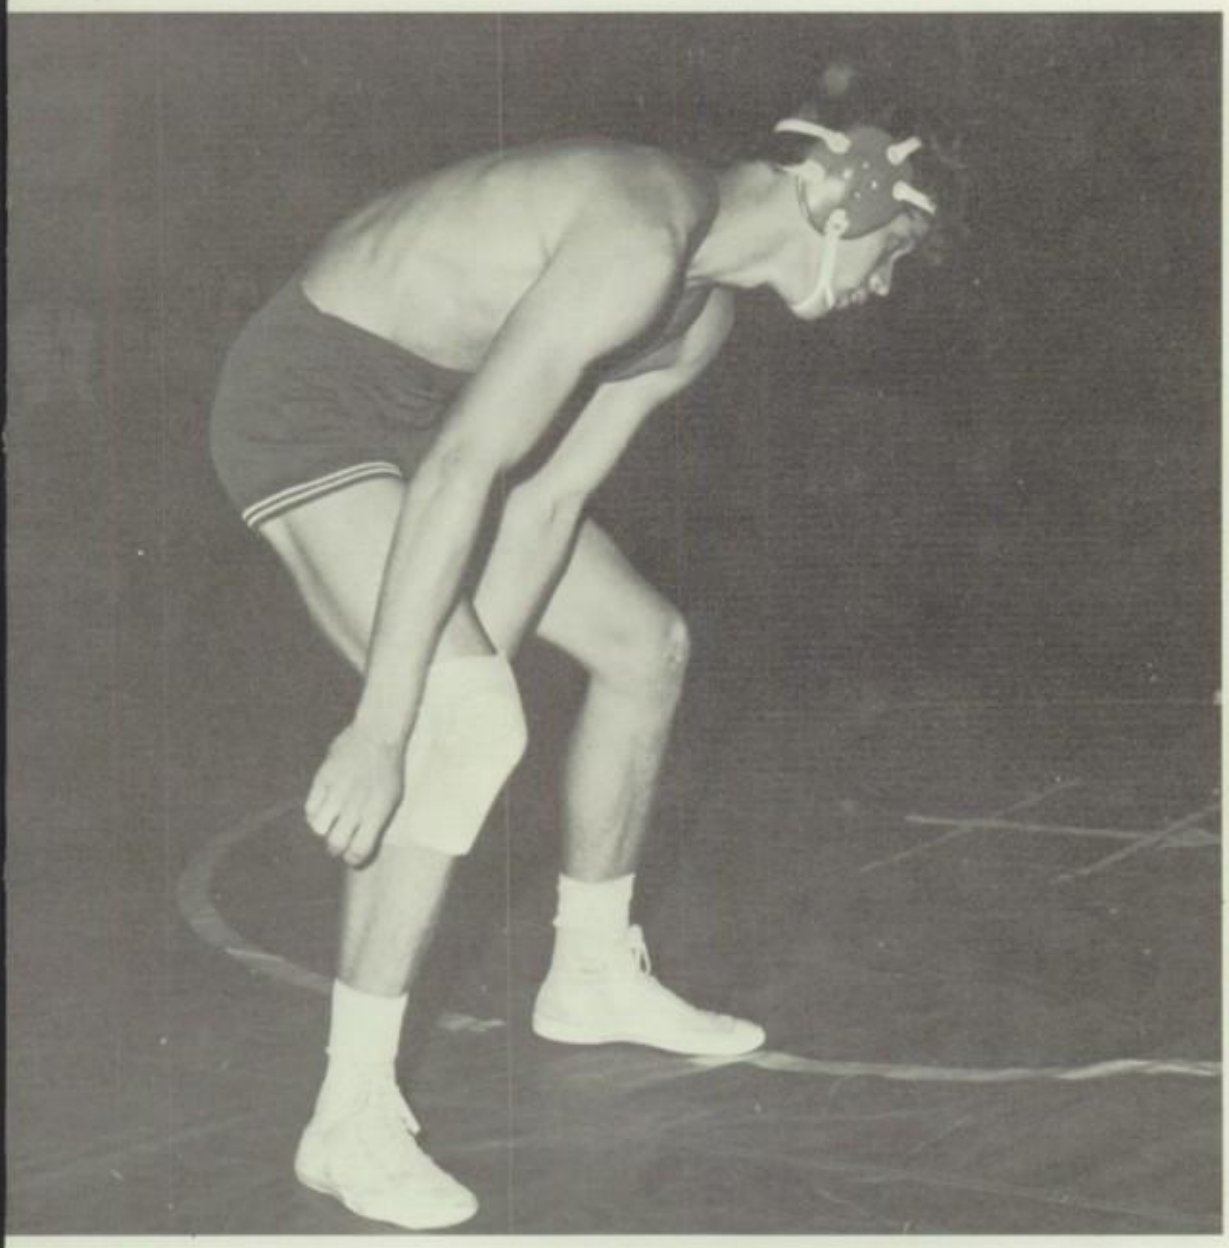
argo's Grappling Gents Grind Competition



WRESTLING — In only their third year at Largo, the Grappling Gents proved one of the powers of the Pinellas County Conference. Roy Terepka, Alan Schrader, and Alan Blackburg were returning all-conference performers and Bob Gammon, James Ryan, Steve Huber, and Ron Johnson added great depth to the team. The Packers ripped all opponents except Northeast and Dixie Hollins, including a rout of Seminole in front of the student body. Sophomores Don Stowers and Larry Knapp provided hope for the future by winning key matches in the higher weight classes.

GOLF — Largo again was picked as the team to beat in this year's conference golf race. With a series of early wins the Packers jumped into first place and were undefeated in conference competition approaching mid-season. Mike Wileman and Mike Souchak were consistently among the lowest scorers in the county, followed closely by Gary Bevan and Jack Wileman. The charges of Coach Schroeder were apparently in a good position to end Clearwater's string of conference championships.

CHEERLEADERS
They were the girls who showed the real meaning of Packer Pride. They experienced all the joys and sorrows of the year and instilled a great excitement in crowds. through the football and basketball seasons. They were the ones who planned pep rallies, painted spirit posters, and traveled seventy-five miles in Miss Morten's car to support the wrestling team. They were the ones with a proud smile in defeat. They were the cheerleaders.

JUNIOR VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

Seven spirit-filled cheerleaders led the football, basketball, and wrestling teams to victory throughout the year. With Miss Pavlisko as their sponsor and the varsity cheerleaders as big sisters, the girls strived for perfection in learning new cheers. The one word that can best describe this year's squad is pep. A single word that exemplifies energy, high spirits, and initiative. A word that makes the junior varsity cheerleaders a group of great girls.

Key Club Announces Daily News in Homeroom

Learning to accept responsibility is not easy.
Key Club
is one organization which teaches this lesson to the young men of Largo High.
They learn,
according to Mr. Gregory,
to give instead of take.
Helping Camp Seoule,
selling fruitcake,
distributing UPARC canisters,
and cleaning-up the campus
were a few of their accomplishments.
As if
that was not enough, Key Club reported
homeroom announcements daily.

The gap between students and faculty was bridged by the Student Council. They had the Students Rights and Responsibilities Committee, Work Week, and Pride Week. 2500 cans of food were collected as a result of their unending work. Homecoming needed a lot of ingenuity and work. Student Council was there and accomplished their task with perfection. By their continuous efforts, Largo High School has become a better place to work.

Largo's monthly newspaper
the Packer Press,
had another deadline-filled year.
The staffers received new ideas and techniques
from Miss Curris, the new advisor.
As the deadline dates
drew near,
sounds of typewriters,
phone calls
and tears from sleepless nights were heard
throughout the halls.
The days arrived.
As
the papers were sent to the publisher, sighs of relief echoed from each weary reporter.

Principal Interested in "Now Generation"

"Due to the differences in our current society and environment today's young people are extremely knowledgeable and inquisitive. They seem to have a great concern and care for other people and are making a great deal of progress in breaking through the barriers of prejudice. Our young People have the desire to interact and communicate in order to improve human relations.

The "Now Generation" has a wonderful opportunity to assume leadership and involvement in making our school, community, country and world a better place to live. I have enough faith and confidence in our young to believe that their contribution will be instrumental in providing a bright future for all of us."

What is a Junior?

In the middle of Sophomores and Seniors . . .
familiarity of Largo —
old friends and new . . .
on the road of knowledge —
almost Seniors.
Participating in can food drives and ecology programs . . .
sponsoring a dance, and as always,
the traditional Junior-Senior prom.
These and many other activities show the concern and importance of being a spirited Junior classman.

Top: Ruby Ennis takes time out to smile and talk to friends. Center: Jimmy Cannon shows the students of Largo what Packer spirit is all about. Opposite Page, Top: Juniors find something funny to laugh about at lunch. Opposite Page, Bottom: Debbie Woodburn shows her spirit and pride.

The future belongs to you.

We must be ready for it.

By our calendar, it's already 1980. It has to be. For we must build today if we are to provide the additional power you'll need for the schools and homes and hospitals that you will build tomorrow.

. . . and time beckons us to hurry,
but memories cause us to linger
and once again we remember our friends.

Jeanne M. McGrew

Tom L. Kiley

Growing up,
trying to reach maturity —
wanting our elders to take notice.
Learning the rules of society . . .
becoming responsible for your own mind and body.
Standing up to cheer for yourself when no one else will.

school —
anticipation of the last day — hard work and the worries of
"will I pass?"
school —
the time to achieve notice for our special skills and talents . . .
the chance for making deeper friendships.
school —
the present dreams and hours which will become the past times and memories.

Giving your all,
the expression of the "now generation"
Live for this moment,
remember it,
cherish it,
for now it is gone —
This year . . . it has passed.

In the end
friends come and go . . .
and we age —
but memories remain, especially for the "class of '72."

We lived
in times of pressure
and times of joy
Thanks to many . . .
Paul, Cliff, Jesse, of Bryn-Alan,
Mr. Kennedy of Taylor Publishing Co.,
Mr. Chizik and Mr. Shambaugh
for their unending patience, but especially to our staff.
